Permission to User Personal Information – Please read and sign

The British Columbia Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA) dated 1 January 2004 requires we inform members why we collect, use and disclose their personal information. The Club collects and uses your name, address, telephone number and e-mail address to fulfill the following:

1. Maintain a register of members to identify and contact members, issue receipts for dues, issue membership cards and list in the CLUB phone book.
2. To mail club newsletters, contact volunteers, advise members of club functions, obtain permission for use of names or photos in media or club historical records, etc., and to send appropriate cards to members as the situation dictates.

Access to personal information is restricted to club members requiring it during the performance of their duties. It is not available in any form to outside agencies or persons except when required to pass on necessary information for the organization of club membership in BowlsBC, insurance, club functions, trips, etc.

Lists containing names and phone numbers of member volunteers for various club duties or members signing up for club activities will be maintained by the Volunteer Committee.

I agree disagree (circle one) with my personal information being used as outlined above.

I agree disagree (circle one) with my email address being included in the Club phone directory.
